RIGHTS OF THE DATA SUBJECT - COMPLAINT TO THE SUPERVISORY AUTHORITY

- By contacting the Privacy Office by e-mail at privacy@brandart.com, data subjects may request from the data controller access to the data concerning them, their deletion, the rectification of inaccurate data, the integration of incomplete data, the restriction of processing in the cases provided for by Article 18 GDPR, as well as opposition to processing, for reasons related to their particular situation, in cases of legitimate interest of the data controller.
- In addition, where the processing is based on consent or on contract and is carried out by automated means, data subjects have the right to receive the data in a structured, commonly used and machine-readable format and, if technically feasible, to transmit them to another data controller without hindrance.
- Data subjects have the right to lodge a complaint with the competent supervisory authority in the Member State where they habitually reside or work or in the State where the alleged infringement occurred.
- The data subject has the right to withdraw the consent given at any time for marketing purposes and to object to the Data processed for the same purposes. This is without prejudice to the possibility for the data subject who prefers to be contacted for the aforesaid purposes exclusively by traditional means to express his/her objection only to the receipt of communications by automated means.
